

LITTLE HUNTER FARM

And just like that, fall is here and winter approaches...

IN THIS ISSUE

Horsemanship Challenge

Mark your Calendar

Show Team

2025 Pricing & Policy

Dressing for Winter

Horsemanship Challenge

True Horsemanhip Begins on the Ground!

Looking to spend some time with the horses this winter and improve your non-riding skills?

Beginning December 26, 2024 those who have completed a basic horsemanship class will have the opportunity to develop their horsemanship proficiency by completing a knowledge and skills checklist. Challenge yourself to complete it, in full, by the end of February!

I am available to review, practice and begin completion Dec. 26th through Dec. 31st (11am - 3pm) Then, beginning January 4th, Saturday mornings (9am - 1pm) continue practice and completion of checklist. Final Saturday will be February 21st.

Come as often as you would like or are able. Come before or stay after lessons. Simply add your name to the schedule book to let me know when you want to stop by. Fee $100

Dates to Know

The following lesson days are cancelled or have changed hours. Barn will remain open to boarders.

November 28

December 14 lessons moved up 1 hour

December 24

December 25

December 31st all lessons before 1 pm

January 1

Pricing & Policy

Discount Pricing

New Rider Discounts will remain in place entering into 2025. 'Frequent rider discount' purchases will end December 31, 2024

Missing your regular weekly lesson day

If you are skipping lesson(s) for a week due to vacation, holiday or other life commitment, please remember to schedule your missed lesson(s) on another day in the month. Consistency creates the best development of riders as well as the success of our program.

Winter Weather Cancellations

Unless temperatures are severe or roads are hazardous, lessons will proceed. I will notify by text/email, day of, for needed cancellations. Riders may cancel their lessons due to weather concerns. All cancellations will be treated as follows:

Weather cancellations may not be rescheduled in place of future lessons. They may only be scheduled along with a regular weekly lessons. 30 day policy.

LHF Show Team

LHF is looking to expand its show team. Gain some additional riding experience, improve your skills and have some fun with the team in 2025!

From beginner riders at walk and trot level, through beginner and advanced jumping. We will be showing at the local Northern Illinois Hunter Jumper Association shows.

Those who are interested in joining, please reach out for information and requirements. Below is our first travel show of the season. All other dates can be found in the viewing room.

December 8, 2024 F&F schooling show

Sign up deadling for this show is November 30, 2024

Winter Wear:

Please dress your rider appropriately for being outside when lessoning over the winter. Dress in layers.

- Coats and sweatshirts/sweaters must fall above the hip
- Leather or winter riding gloves only
- No scarves or mittens
- Toe warmers or winter insulated riding boots are helpful

Riders must be dressed appropriately and safely to participate in their lesson

